Dear Fellow Conservative,

Are you as concerned as I am with President Obama's unprecedented expansion of the federal government?

Whether it is Cap and "Tax," the bank and auto bailouts and the massive $1.6 trillion dollar GOVERNMENT OPTION for health care, President Obama and the Democrat Congress are moving to consolidate their hold onto power and our economy. They've moved so quickly and reached for so much control that it's very clear to me that America can't afford much more of their leadership.

In Florida, former Speaker of the State House of Representatives, Marco Rubio, is running for the open U.S. Senate seat. His goal is to bring conservative ideas and principled leadership to the Senate. His record in Florida speaks for itself and I am proud to endorse his campaign to you.

He needs your urgent help to get his conservative message out, to continue building his base of support across the state. It's critical we help add Marco's voice to the debate in Washington. We need a fighter in Congress capable of stopping the Democrats' unprecedented spending and government intervention. That is why keeping the Florida Senate seat in Republican hands is critical.

The Republican Party needs a new generation of proven fiscal and social conservative leaders in Congress. That is why I'm asking you to join with me today in electing Marco Rubio to the U.S. Senate in Florida.

I know we can count on Marco to fight for our ideas and put the brakes on President Obama's radical agenda.

President Obama is hoping you'll just sit on your hands and not respond to this letter, but I hope and pray you'll stand with me today for a conservative future for America.

Sincerely yours,

Mike Huckabee

P.S. Please read the enclosed letter from Speaker Rubio himself. Then, please join me in supporting his campaign by sending an urgent gift of $2,400, $1,000, $500, $250, $100, $50, $35, or even $20 today. Thank you for your prompt reply.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE (FL) (2006-2008)

HOUSE MAJORITY WHIP (2000-2002)

Personal

Dear Fellow Conservative,

Thank you for reading the enclosed letter from my good friend and strong supporter, Governor Mike Huckabee.

With his support and the support of U.S. Senator Jim DeMint of South Carolina, my campaign for the U.S. Senate here in Florida is catching fire.

As Governor Huckabee pointed out in his letter, recent polling showed me with a commanding lead over my likely Democratic opponent.

I'm writing you today for your personal help and support because I know there are millions of Americans like us out there who have simply had enough of President Obama and the liberal Democrats running Congress.

As a son of Cuban exiles, my parents came to this country to free themselves and their children from a dictator who is the prime example of "excessive government control" -- called Communism.

Today, it seems as if President Obama and the leadership in Congress don't care that the Founding Fathers set limits on the role and power of the federal government.

They have produced government takeovers and bailouts that are simply not authorized by the U.S. Constitution.

Now, President Obama wants to take over an additional 14% of the U.S. economy by ruining the best health care system in the world.

Fortunately, the uprising at town hall meetings across America and the flooding of email boxes on Capital Hill are causing President Obama and his allies in Congress to slow it down.

(over, please...)

Now, with public opposition mounting, I firmly believe the time is right for a grassroots conservative movement to produce yet another crop of leaders willing to say "NO" to the Special Interests and powerful establishment power-brokers in Washington, D.C.

I'm running for the U.S. Senate because the time to pay the piper for decades of deficit spending is much closer than the liberals would have you believe.

Things are so upside down in the world of our government's finances that I've seen several articles where the Communist Chinese are warning American leaders about the bad economics of massive budget deficits!

When President Obama signed the $787 Billion stimulus package, not one start up business got a penny of these funds. The uninspiring result so far has been that government did nothing but stimulate the debt -- and we got stuck with the tab.

The House of Representatives has passed a massive new energy tax loved by environmentalists, called "cap and trade," that does nothing to level the playing field with the two BILLION people living in India and China.

If you thought America was bleeding manufacturing jobs now, just hope and pray this bill never becomes law.

And, of course, when it comes to protecting and defending human life, the Obama administration is more concerned about the care and comfort of captured terrorists in Guantanamo Bay than they are about ending taxpayer funding of abortion which takes an innocent human life.

On the Second Amendment, I'm not even sure the Obama Justice Department can read plain English. It's an individual right to keep and bear arms, period.

My friend, if you want more of the same in 2010 then I'm not your candidate for the U.S. Senate.

★ ★ I've dedicated my entire public service career to upending the status quo and turning the outdated establishment on its head.

The Lord has blessed my wife and me with four wonderful kids and I intend to do my part as a small business attorney, a husband and father, and a frustrated taxpayer, to leave our nation in a better place than it was when I first ran for public office.

I'm not seeking a seat in the U.S. Senate to warm a chair. I'm intent on making a difference for taxpayers and families like yours.

As Governor Huckabee said, I'm ahead in the polls against my Democrat opponent but I need to press forward as if I were 20+ points behind.

Your gift of $2,400, $1,000, $500, $250, $100, $50, $35, or even $20 will truly help me make a difference for America in the U.S. Senate.

I've never been one to shy away from promoting our conservative fiscal and social agenda. As the son of exiles from Communism, I'm a conservative's conservative on foreign policy too.

Please, don't let President Obama and his liberal allies take this U.S. Senate seat away from a conservative like me. With only 40 votes in the Senate today, we need to gain seats, not lose them, in 2010. Kindly help me today.

For America,

Marco Rubio (R)
Hon. Marco Rubio
Speaker of the House (FL)
(2006-2008)

P.S. Please know I need to hear back from you in the next 14 days. I'm under a massive fundraising deadline and urgently need your generous financial gift of $2,400, $1,000, $500, $250, $100, $50, $35, or even $20. Thank you.

EMERGENCY PERSONAL REPLY

TO: Governor MIKE HUCKABEE
C/O MARCO RUBIO FOR U.S. SENATE

Dear Mike and Marco,

Thank you for writing to me for help. I agree that with the Democrats targeting Florida due to Senator Mel Martinez's retirement, we cannot let them come even close to winning this race.

With Marco's results-oriented conservative leadership, I completely agree that sending him to Washington would be a great step forward for the future of America.

I realize the Democrats would love to target this race and are enjoying unprecedented national fundraising success with President Obama in the White House.

I will not allow left-wing Democrats from across America to pour money into Florida to buy such an important seat in the U.S. Senate! That's why I'm signing this EMERGENCY PERSONAL REPLY and mailing my generous donation of:
